IV. FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

7. In or around mid June, 2009, Plaintiff began to receive telephone calls from Defendant in an attempt to collect an alleged debt owed to AmeriCredit from a vehicle that was repossessed around ten (10) years ago.

9. Defendant's agent George Thorpe asked personal questions in regards to Plaintiff's wife's financial situation. Plaintiff explained that she had acquired property and land prior to their marriage. Agent told Mr. Lovrinic that if debt was not paid in full that he would put a lien against wife's said property and land, telling him that's the way it is in Pennsylvania; because it's a Commonwealth whatever she owns would be affected by his debt.

10. Plaintiff became worried that his wife would lose her property, asked if he could make payment arrangements? Mr. Thorp continued to tell Plaintiff that he had to "speak with their attorney"; after putting Mr. Lovrinic on hold, agent returned and told him that if he paid $3,666.48 they wouldn't go any further with the lien.

Additionally, Defendant could have taken the steps necessary to bring their and their agent's actions within compliance of the FDCPA, but neglected to do so and failed to adequately review those actions to insure compliance with the law.

14. At all times pertinent hereto, Defendant was acting by and through its agents, servants and/or employees, who were acting with the scope and course of their employment and under the direct supervision and control of Defendant herein.

15. At all times pertinent hereto, the conduct of Defendant as well as its agents, servants and/or employees, was malicious, intentional, willful, reckless, negligent and in wanton disregard for federal and state law and the rights of the Plaintiff herein.

16. As a result of Defendant's conduct, Plaintiff has sustained actual damages, including, but not limited to, injury to Plaintiff's reputation, invasion of privacy, damage to Plaintiff's credit, out-of-pocket expenses, physical, emotional and mental pain and anguish and pecuniary loss and he will continue to suffer same for an indefinite time in the future, all to his great detriment and loss.
